

A comparison between the 2005 government decision regarding the Jerusalem Envelope - and its implementation as of July 2015

Commitments made	Kafr 'Aqab area	Shuafat Refugee Camp area
Jerusalem Municipality
Establishing a municipal services center at border crossings	✗	✗
Establishing a community center	 The community center's budget is extremely low relative to the needs and size of the population.	 The community center's budget is extremely low relative to the needs and size of the population.
Issuing permits for street vendors at crossings	✗	✗
Ministry of Defense and Ministry of Public Security
Arranging for reasonable travel time by foot or vehicle	 One road goes to and from the checkpoint. Although the volume of traffic on this road has significantly increased, no additional roads have been paved, and there is an enormous amount of traffic. Some of the routes created within the checkpoint are usually closed.	 One road goes to and from the checkpoint. Although the volume of traffic on this road has significantly increased, no additional roads have been paved, and there is an enormous amount of traffic. Some of the routes created within the checkpoint are usually closed.
Arranging for public transportation	 There is a short route for public transportation, which is frequently closed	✗
Ministry of Education and the Jerusalem Municipality

Building or renting classrooms	 There are three municipal primary schools, of which two existed prior to the building of the separation barrier. There is no municipal high school.	 There is one municipal school - a primary school for boys - that was established in a space that was previously an animal pen. There is no municipal high school.
School buses for students to travel to other neighborhoods of Jerusalem	 There are buses provided for only 300 students	 There are buses provided for 3,500 students
Ministry of Health
Setting procedures to allow the access of emergency vehicles	 MDA ambulances do not enter. Red Crescent ambulances are stopped for inspection at checkpoints.	 MDA ambulances do not enter. Red Crescent ambulances are stopped for inspection at checkpoints.
Encouraging hospitals in East Jerusalem to open divisions/branches beyond the separation barrier	 There is one maternity ward, which was established before the barrier was built.
Encouraging HMOs to set up clinics beyond the separation barrier	 One clinic has opened since the barrier was built.	 Three clinics have opened since the barrier was built.
Israel Postal Company
Post offices	 There is a post office at the Qalandiya checkpoint, which is open two days a week.
Distribution centers (P.O. boxes)
Ministry of Social Affairs and National Insurance Institute

Establishing branches at border crossings	 There is a NII office at the Qalandiya checkpoint, which is open one day a week.
Ministry of Transport
Establishing a transport and licensing service center
Ministry of the Interior
Establishing an office of the Ministry of the Interior	 In the past there was an office of the Ministry of the Interior at Qalandiya, which subsequently was closed
Israeli Employment Service
Unemployment relief for those who declare unemployment – just once a month		 Service is available at Qalandiya only
Service at branches in checkpoints

*Appendix attached to ACRI's letter to Prime Minister Netanyahu, August 9, 2015.